

TrudyQ Consulting believes that to really understand and add value to your client's staffing requirements, profiling and a complete understanding of our client's environment, company culture and vision is vital.

TrudyQ Consulting understands that the right recruitment partner will ultimately be an extension of our clients staffing solution – as it is people that ultimately contributes to a company's successful and sustainable growth.

We recognise that the right employee's in the best suited positions is what makes up the "CORE" of a company and will thereby contribute the most significant value to a Company's positive bottom line growth.

It is all about Quality and not Quantitative candidate recommendation. We appreciate that our client's time is valuable.
